

Table of Contents

Introduction	3
Before You Read	4
Skills include: basic story elements, sequence, real and make believe, art, vocabulary building
As You Read	24
Skills include: story elements: character, setting, and plot development, alphabetizing, vocabulary, sequence, non-fiction, art, creative writing
After You Have Read	58
Skills include: story elements: character, setting, and plot development, non-fiction, alphabetizing, vocabulary, sequence, art, book reviews, book reports, creative writing: letters, sequels, revisions
Teacher Resource
The Books I Have Read	102
Reading Is Forever	103
Dramatization	104
Play Dough	106
Story Scene (Diorama)	107
Ideas for Using Stationery and Open-ended Cards	108
Stationery	109
Open-ended Cards	110
Venn Diagram	114
Ideas for Using the Grid and Open-ended Worksheets	116
Grid	117
Open-ended Worksheets	118
Book Projects	123
Poetry Appreciation	134
To Help You Draw	138
Super Reader Award	143
I Love To Read	144

Name _____ Date _____

Book Title _____

YOUR NON-FICTION BOOK

The book you have chosen is non-fiction. That means it is about real things in the world around us.

What is your book about? _____

Why did you choose this book? _____

Have you read other books about this subject? _____

List 5 facts that you know about the subject.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

List 5 facts that you hope to learn from reading this book.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Name _____ Date _____

Book Title _____

STORY PYRAMID

Here is a story pyramid for you to build. It will help you remember the story you have read.

Directions: Work alone or with a partner to fill in the spaces. Be sure to use only the number of words given.

