Solve the clues and place the proper nouns in the puzzle below.

1. I sailed around the tip of South America and across the Pacific Ocean.
2. I conquered Mexico in the 16th century.
3. I am a group of islands first explored by James Cook around the 1770s. Later, I became the 50th state of the United States of America. What am I called?
4. I sailed along the St. Lawrence River into what is now Montreal.
5. I traveled into the lower Mississippi Valley in 1539. Who am I?
6. I reached the Pacific Ocean in 1513.
7. I explored Victoria Falls in Southern Africa during the mid-19th century.
8. I am an Englishman who sailed from Holland into what is now Canada and the northeastern part of the United States.
9. I traveled southwest from Iceland around 1000 B.C. to explore. Who am I?
10. I am an Italian who traveled extensively through Central and Southeastern Asia during the 13th century.
11. I explored and named Florida. Which European country did I call home?
12. I traced the Mississippi River to its mouth in the Gulf of Mexico. Which European country did I call home?
13. I explored Antarctica in the 18th century.

Bonus: Notice that some of the squares in the puzzle are darker than others. If you answered every question correctly, the letters in those boxes should spell out the names of the two Americans who explored the winding path along the Missouri and Columbia Rivers all the way to the Pacific Ocean.

Their names are _____.

Unscramble the letters to form words. In the appropriate space, explain how this word is
